NEWS

On Melbourne Cup day we had lots of sweeps running, with the top prizes going to Margaret, Doreen and John. Margaret was really in the money and won multiple other smaller prizes.

We had a lovely morning with Karen tickling the ivories, and the View Club put on a wonderful concert too. They had us all singing and reminiscing with some funny skits along the way too. We are very fortunate as the View Club Singers have agreed to perform at the hostel Christmas Party in December, so we look forward to being entertained by them again soon.

So many of us wanted to have Fish & Chips in the Park that we could only take some of the people. We had a great time, fed the ducks (they didn't like the corn though), had a walk and enjoyed the fish & chips. Those that missed out will be able to go in the near future.

It was good to have the chance at our Memorial Service to stop and remember our dear friends that have passed away. We still miss them, but have many fond memories. It was lovely to reconnect with their family members and it was great to see so many of them attend and participate.

December will have lots of special events, including the Christmas Parties, with Douro Lodge's at noon and the Hostel's at 6pm. There will be outings to Big W Shopping Night as well as multiple Christmas Lights Trips. We will also get to see some Choirs, but the dates for these have yet to be set. Wishing everyone a very Merry Christmas!
